

Express Days'13

Presented by Craig Huxley (Express Publishing Senior ELT Consultant)

Programme

- 9:30-10:00 Registration
- 10:00-10:50 Making the Right Noise (Primary level)
- In this session we will be looking at what may lead our primary learners to misbehave and some suggestions as to how we might improve the situation. Examples will be taken from Express Publishing's primary series, Fairyland.'*
- 11:00-11:50 Getting Real with English (Secondary level)
- Those responsible for teaching older learners at schools, universities or technical institutions, are very much aware of the fact that their learners will soon be moving into the real world and that that what they learn before they leave can have a direct effect on their career prospects. In this session we will look at how we can help learners acquire some of the skills they need to be successful in their 'life after education' both professionally and socially.*
- 12:10-13:00 Testing Times: Coping with exam stress (Upper-Secondary level)
- Taking examinations can be a stressful time, but there are ways to help your students cope with it all. Adopting some strategies can help students ignore the unimportant factors and focus on their goals, not those sometimes suggested by their family, friends or peers. The speaker will offer useful advice about helping those students at risk of failing due to stress.*
- 13:10-14:00 Being Specific (Vocational schools, colleges, universities and adults)
- As the world seems to get smaller and the working environment increasingly international, English for Specific Purposes is becoming increasingly popular. In this session we will define what this term really means; what we should be focusing on in the classroom; and generally what we need to know about the subject. We will demonstrate how these ideas can be incorporated into the lesson using the language of (law) as an example.*
- 14:00-14:20 Closing remarks, certificates
